

Shahid Qureshi

Shahid has one daughter studying in each of the NWE, NMS and NHS campuses.

He is a business leader with 25 years of experience transforming Fortune 500 companies by optimizing their strategic, technical, financial, and operational goals.

Shahid is a member of the Board of Directors for several Canadian and International businesses and holds senior governance roles with the federal government. He has extensive international work experience and has helped organizations succeed around the world.

Additionally, he is a certified Board Director from ICD Canada with extensive experience in governance, information technology, cyber security, and risk management.

Shahid proudly serves as the Chair of ACCA in Canada, the world's largest accounting body, and previously chaired ISACA Calgary, North America's largest technology association. His involvement extends to the non-profit sector as Vice Chair for CCIS, Alberta's largest immigrant and settlement service Agency. Additionally, Shahid contributed to the governance of the Calgary Parking Authority in the past as the Chair of the Board and currently holds key governance roles with the Federal Government.